INTERNATIONALLY ACCLAIMED PIANIST LUCAS KRUPINSKI TO HEADLINE NATIONAL CAPITAL ORCHESTRA CHARITY CONCERT

Canberra, ACT – 12 September, 3pm

Internationally acclaimed Polish pianist Lucas Krupinski will make a special appearance in Canberra this September as guest soloist with the National Capital Orchestra (NCO) in Echoes of Humanity, a charity concert presented in partnership with St Vincent de Paul Society Canberra/Goulburn.

The concert, to be held at Llewellyn Hall on Saturday 12 September 2026, features one of the world's most loved piano concertos, Rachmaninov's Piano Concerto No. 2, followed by Mahler's Symphony No. 1, performed under the baton of NCO Artistic Director Louis Sharpe.

Recognised as one of Europe's outstanding young pianists, Lucas Krupinski has captivated audiences with his expressive artistry and prize-winning performances. Canberra audiences will have the rare opportunity to hear him perform Rachmaninov's sweeping and emotionally charged masterpiece, a work celebrated for its soaring melodies and virtuosic brilliance.

The concert concludes with Mahler's Symphony No. 1, an exhilarating musical journey that moves from moments of quiet reflection to a triumphant finale. Together, these two masterpieces perfectly capture the concert's theme of hope, resilience and shared humanity.

Artistic Director Louis Sharpe said the programme brings together extraordinary music while supporting an important community cause.

"Echoes of Humanity celebrates the power of music to inspire, connect and uplift. We are thrilled to welcome Lucas Krupinski to Canberra for this magnificent performance of Rachmaninov's Piano Concerto No. 2, and proud to partner with Vinnies Canberra/Goulburn in presenting a concert that not only showcases exceptional music but also supports people in our community who need it most."

Presented in partnership with St Vincent de Paul Society Canberra/Goulburn, Echoes of Humanity will raise funds to support people experiencing hardship across the ACT and surrounding region. The collaboration reflects a shared commitment to strengthening the community through music and compassion.

"This partnership is a wonderful example of the power of community coming together to support people experiencing hardship. Through the gift of music, the National Capital Orchestra is helping Vinnies continue our mission of supporting people doing it tough with practical assistance, compassion and hope. We are deeply grateful for their generosity and for everyone who attends this special event." — Lucy Hohnen, CEO, St Vincent de Paul Society Canberra/Goulburn

The National Capital Orchestra invites music lovers and supporters of St Vincent de Paul Society Canberra/Goulburn alike to experience an unforgettable afternoon where artistic excellence meets generosity, bringing together an internationally renowned soloist, one of Canberra's leading orchestras and a cause that makes a genuine difference.
